

THE PRESS AGENT

In Advance of the Great Popocratic Combination

MAKES HIS APPEARANCE AGAIN to this Part of the Country—At Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry He Faces Audiences that were Unfriendly—The Crowd at Bellaire was the Largest of the Morning—The Martin's Ferry Crowd Yelled For McKinley—At Other Points.

The trip yesterday morning of Canadian Bryan through the Ohio valley district along the banks of the Ohio, was punctuated here and there with cheers for his opponent and handwaved in the crowds were many badges of that color which indicated that the waters were not so friendly to the white metal as they could have been.
There was a good crowd at Bellaire and it was an enthusiastic one. Mr.
Bryan addressed them for fifteen minutes and told them that the free coinage of silver would be a benefit to the farmers, the laboring man and the business man, using practically the same line of argument to substantiate that statement as employed by him on other occasions.

At Bridgeport the wearers of the yellow badges were numerous, but the shouters for the triple nominee were strong enough to drown the cheers for the Republican candidate.

Martin's Ferry turned out a crowd which was to a good extent hostile to the views of the candidate. There were gold badges worn by a large portion of his audience and cheers for McKinley alternated with cheers for Bryan. Noticing the yellow badges, Mr. Bryan said in this country everybody could take the gold cure who wanted to and told the story about the Nebraska woman who said her brother was a gold man without any gold. This pleased the silverites and they applauded vigorously and as soon as their applause would die away there were cheers for Mr. Bryan's opponent.

There were stops at Yorkville and Brilliant and at those places Mr. Bryan simply appeared on the platform and acknowledged the receptions given him.
Wellsville, Columbiana county, is in Major McKinley's congressional district and is a Republican stronghold. That was apparent when Mr. Bryan arrived, for while he had a large crowd it was made up for the most part of shouting enthusiastic McKinleyites.

Yellville, predominated at East Liverpool, when shortly after 10 o'clock the Democratic nominee addressed a large crowd. He had trouble making himself heard on account of the loud cheering for his opponent. Every manifestation of affection for the Republican nominee was answered by defiant yells and cheers of the supporters of the free silver champion. Mr. Bryan's speech was of the same general tenor as his silver discussions.

Yellville was invaded by Mr.
Bryan at Rochester, when at noon the train pulled into that city. It was distinctly a Bryan crowd and it showed its approval of the doctrines advocated by Mr. Bryan by shouting and cheering and applauding every time they had an opportunity. Mr.
Bryan defended that plank of the Chicago platform declaring in favor of the income tax and quoted the opinion of Justice Brown in the income tax case.

There were short stops at New Brighton and Kenwood. At the first place named he addressed a crowd of several hundred and at Kenwood he appeared on the rear platform and was informed by those gathered there to use the vernacular that he was "all right" and that his opponent was "on the hog."

SPEAKS AT BELLAIRE.
Bryan Didn't Set the Town on Fire Though There was a Blaze There.

The Democrats who are supporting William J. Bryan for President this year, the prohibitionists and others who are doing the same thing, together with a large number of Republicans and other sound money men who wanted to hear what he had to say, gathered at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh depot yesterday morning, when it was found the candidate's special car was there. To say all were disappointed is to state a fact, for the train did not leave for an hour after the scheduled time and yet the candidate did not show himself more than three minutes. He did not make a positive statement, except that "a man who is opposed to agitation is not fit to live in this country," following this with the qualification "that agitation is only discussion."

His followers in Bellaire had spent money liberally, had put a large band and supposed the candidate had heard of these efforts, but there was no evidence of that fact, and the Bryan display was a great disappointment and productive of no good.

BRYAN AT BRIDGEPORT.

He Attracted a Crowd of Six Hundred, Most of Them Republicans.

The news that Bryan's Wild West show was coming to Bridgeport, attracted a crowd of about one hundred silverites and about five hundred gold men at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad station, yesterday morning.
The train, consisting of two coaches, arrived at 9:15 a. m. being an hour late. The star performer was on the rear platform and was ready to begin his talk at once, but had to wait until a Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway switching engine got by, which consumed perhaps two minutes. When quiet was restored, Mr. Bryan, facing a crowd that looked like a sunflower garden, spoke as follows:

"The question at issue is a financial one. Our policy is to give silver an equal opportunity with gold. We should invoke our own laws. A man in our town who knows about as much about the money question as the men who wear gold badges, asked me if foreign countries would not bring their silver here to our mints to have it minted. I told him yes, but the money would stay with our people."

After a few more sentences, the five-minutes being up, the train pulled out and left about one hundred disappointed Democrats and about five hundred Republicans, who saw the train go round the bend.

The crowd was well behaved, quiet, orderly and respectful to the speaker.
There was no interruption or enthusiasm. The Republicans looked on in quiet wonder and amazement at the man who is going over the country like an untamed broncho.

A FROST AT MARTIN'S FERRY.

Bryan struck a frost at Martin's Ferry. The crowd at the depot numbered something like 1,500 persons and more than one-half of these were ladies and children. There were no republicans, no bugs and no horse and two or three dogs. Several Republicans worked industriously distributing Bryan badges, but notwithstanding their efforts to make a show, these badges were outnumbered by yellow badges of all shapes and sizes by two to one.

Only two persons were seen distributing gold badges and one of these was a printer who distributed his kind articles of the advertising in the train was an hour late and the crowd spent the time in different ways. A cheer would be given for Bryan, then a louder one for McKinley, all good naturedly. Arguments were frequent but these did not cause any bad feeling.

There was not a single flag displayed at the depot and none was carried by people in the crowd; there was no music of any kind, not even a tin horn. Not a banner was seen, except one at a saloon near the depot. This was stretched across the Cleveland & Pittsburgh track and on it appeared the inscription "Free turtle soup here today." This caught a portion of the crowd.
This saloon several flags were displayed and the only other place in Martin's Ferry where the stars and stripes were seen was at a house several hundred yards up the track.

The people waited, cheered, shivered and waited. Finally the train was seen approaching and the crowd was glad. The only greeting was the footing of a locomotive whistle on the Terminal bridge. The reception was not so hearty as that accorded some of the delegations that pass through Martin's Ferry on their way to Canton to see the next President. When Bryan's train nearly the depot it was noticed that the engine, No. 607, was running backward, and a black water spaniel dog, owned by a free silver man was struck by it and narrowly escaped being killed.
As the crowd cheered and when it stopped, Ring Master George C. Moore, introduced the star performer, who proceeded to do the song and dance act.

Glancing around he saw the great number of gold badges, frowned, then tried to make a hit by repeating that yellow fever chestnut. This caused the free silver people to cheer and yell for Bryan, and their voices were overcome by cries for McKinley. When Bryan said the new yellow fever was killing the people, one man yelled "We will kill you two weeks from today." Quiet restored, Bryan made other breaks and the crowd yelled. He repeated several often told sayings and the crowd again yelled. When he said the people who are for gold have no gold some one wanted to know how about silver.

One man yelled "Tell us about the tariff," and another cried out "We are not beggars." Bryan did not talk ten minutes, but he became somewhat fati-gued at the confusion and so did Mr.
Bryan, who turned from the crowd, gave orders to pull the string and the train moved away. Mrs. Bryan then threw some yellow and red roses at the people following the train. These had been presented to her at Bellaire and Bridgeport. Miss Mattie Sweeney, of Martin's Ferry, presented Mrs. Bryan with a large bunch of beautiful roses, which were scattered among the crowd at Steubenville. As the Bryan train passed under the free turtle soup sign the latter was caught on Bryan's car and almost torn down.

The earnestness of the McKinley men who yelled for their favorite, will no doubt be the text for a long-winded story in the Register this morning.

Along the Landing.
The Keystone State was delayed by fog and heavy business and did not pass up until 2 p. m. yesterday.

The marks at 6 p. m. showed 7 feet 10 inches and slowly rising. Weather, rain and cooler. A fall in temperature of twenty degrees is predicted for this morning.

The Bay Brothers, of Ironton, have decided to place the Ruth in the Pittsburgh and Charleston trade, in connection with the Kanawha, and in opposition to the H. K. Bedford, owned and commanded by Captain Gordon Green, and run as an independent packer. The Ruth arrives this morning for Pittsburgh, and returning for Charleston, she passes Wheeling on Friday, a day ahead of the Bedford. The Bay's have the reputation of being hard fighters and will no doubt make matters interesting for Captain Green, but on this part of the river, at least, the sympathy of the public will be with Captain Green, one of the most popular men on the river. But when rates are being cut to pieces, liking and sympathy go for little.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

HON. T. H. ANDERSON

Makes an Important Appeal for Sound Money at New Cumberland.

NEW CUMBERLAND, W. Va., Oct.
20.—The Republicans of this city had a grand demonstration last night and were very happy to do so in consequence.
The large court house was full to overflowing, many being unable to gain admission and a large number of ladies being present. The Mandolin club and the Glee Club furnished the entertaining music which added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Colonel T. H. Anderson, ex-minister to Bolivia, was the speaker, and told of the effect of free silver in that country in a manner which convinced his audience that they wanted none of it in theirs. He also told of the benefits the United States received from the reciprocity treaties negotiated by Mr. Blaine with the South American republics, and the injury to the trade with country resulting from the abrogation of the arrangement by the present tariff law.

His appeal to the patriotism and loyalty for the citizens to stand for the honor of the nation was eloquent and touching. Mr. Bryan has fewer followers than he had yesterday, as the result of the meeting, which was earnest and enthusiastic to an unusual degree.
Captain Babout presided and introduced the speaker in his usual happy manner. Watch the returns from Hancock county.

A MIX IN KANSAS.
Watson's Name Withdrawn, but May Have to be Written In.

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 20.—The name of Thomas E. Watson as Democratic Populist candidate for vice president, has been nominally removed from the Kansas ticket of that party, in deference to the wishes of the Georgia nominee, whose letter of withdrawal has been received by the secretary of state.
As a sequel to this move, Chairman John W. Breidenthal, of the fusion committee, has filed mandamus proceedings in the supreme court to compel the secretary of state to place Mr.
Watson's name on the ticket, notwithstanding the protest of Mr. Watson.
The case will be heard on Wednesday.
In the meantime, as the last day of the secretary of state had under the law to mail the certificates of nomination to the various county clerks had arrived, that official has mailed such notifications. The name of Mr.
Watson as vice presidential candidate, was left off the fusion ticket and in its place a slip bearing these words was inserted: "Mandamus proceedings have been commenced to compel insertion of Thomas E. Watson's name here. This may have to be done." The decision of the supreme court in the matter to-morrow is awaited with great interest.

A CRUEL REPORT
Circulated About Miss Caldwell by the United Press.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Indignation prevails among the relatives and friends of the Marquise de Monstiers-Meriville (formerly Miss Mary Gwendolin Caldwell, and founder of Divinity College of the Catholic University of Washington) at the false and injurious report, circulated in certain newspapers of America yesterday by the United Press, that Miss Caldwell was "quietly married a fortnight ago at the Hotel Anglerie in Baden street" and that "the present whereabouts of the pair is unknown."

While the newspapers which have to depend upon this agency were printing this false statement, the newspapers supplied by the Associated Press had printed the full story of the marriage yesterday, at the English church on the Avenue Hoche, Paris, (Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, officiating) of Miss Caldwell to the Marquis de Monstiers-Meriville.

The substance of the false Dresden dispatch was communicated this morning to Father Cooke, superior of St.
Joseph's Catholic church, in Paris, where the marriage ceremony was celebrated yesterday. The Father Superior was indignant at the false statements made.
He said that the Marquis de Monstiers-Meriville was in the city at the time the false reports of his alleged secret marriage having taken place at Baden Baden were circulated in the United States.

Miss Caldwell and Bishop Spalding. It is further pointed out, were stopping at the same hotel at Baden Baden and the clergy and others are particularly indignant at the charge that Bishop Spalding would be guilty of such practice. The announcement that he performed yesterday's ceremony and was one of the witnesses, should, it is said, in conclusion, have set at rest any such false rumor as the one circulated in America.

STREET RAILWAY MEN.
The National Association in Session at St.
Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 20.—The auditorium in which have convened two national political convention, as well as many other national assemblies, held to-day the largest street railway convention that was ever called to order.
It was the fifteenth annual convention of the American Street Railway Association. Every bit of available space in the immense building, outside of that occupied by the delegates and visitors, was filled with a display of street cars and appliances. Everything pertaining to the business is on exhibition.
Necessarily, the electrical appliances formed the greatest part of the exhibition, the latest and most novel development being shown. The electricity dominates everything within the building, the cablemen have an exhibit, which attracts much attention. A mammoth cable is the chief attraction.

At a meeting of the executive committee previous to the convention, Randall C. Cunningham, of Montreal, Canada, resigned as first vice president and Captain Robert McCulloch, of St.
Louis, was appointed to fill the vacancy. He will serve in that capacity for a few days preceding the annual election of officers, when it is expected that he will be elected president. So far there are but three places mentioned as convention cities for 1897. They are New York and Niagara Falls. The sentiment seems to be in favor of the selection of Niagara Falls.

Russell B. Harrison, son of General Benjamin Harrison, came in to-day to attend the convention. He led the forces of the supply men in their attempts at Montreal to break into the membership of the association, but it is hardly probable that the same fight will be made this year. It is almost certain to come before the body in some manner, as it has every year for some years past, but will not be pushed very strongly.

About 500 members, mostly from the east, were present when the convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, for several days' session.

seeking relief from Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The disease is easily relieved in its earlier stage, and as it is utterly sub-ment of the cure is the worst policy. It holds good of delay in cases of fever and ague, kidney complaints, nervousness, debility and rheumatism, ailments to which the Bitters is particularly adapted.

First a Mole,
Then Cancer.

Probably no disease carries such terror in its path as Cancer—and well may this dreadful affliction be regarded with horror. In an alarming manner, it slowly but surely preys upon the life's blood, bearing the victim to the grave day by day. Beyond the use of the knife the physician is powerless, and too much cannot be said against the folly of resorting to the knife for a cure of this terrible disease. Cancer is in the blood, hence it is apparent to all that no relief can be expected from an operation. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the cancer promptly returns, if not in the same place, in the same locality, and is far more malignant than before. The same is true of attempts to remove the cancer by means of caustic plasters, etc., and all who have had this treatment claim that death cannot be more painful.
But there is a cure for cancer—one which gets at the seat of the disease, and removes its cause. S. S. S. is the only real blood remedy, and cures cancer and all other blood diseases, even after other treatment has failed.

One of the well-known residents of Macon, Ga., is Mr. H. Powers, the contractor and builder, who lives at 515 Ross street. For twenty years Mr.
Powers has suffered intensely from a cancer on his face, which was treated constantly, but grew worse all the while. He sought the best medical skill in vain, and could see no hope of ever being cured.

On June 22, 1896, he writes: "Twenty years ago, while being shaved, a small mole on my face was cut, leaving a

MR. H. POWERS.

insignificant sore, to which I paid little attention at first. This sore refused to heal, and after a while became quite obstinate, and began to grow. I placed myself under the treatment of prominent physicians, who said I had cancer of the most stubborn type, and though I took their treatment faithfully, the cancer grew steadily all the while, increasing in size and severity. I also took nearly every medicine that was recommended for the blood, and applied various salves and ointments, all without the slightest benefit. Year by year, I found myself steadily growing worse, for the cancer was sapping my life away, although I spent hundreds of dollars with doctors, and as much more experimenting with various so-called remedies. I was strongly urged by the doctors to submit to an operation, which they claimed was the only hope for me.

"I had well-nigh abandoned hope of ever being cured, when I was induced to try S. S. S., and even the first bottle afforded relief. The medicine caused the cancer to discharge, thus forcing out the poison, and ridding the system of it. I continued to take S. S. S. until the discharge ceased, and the cancer healed up entirely, and I am perfectly well. My cure is regarded as truly remarkable, and demonstrates what a wonderful remedy S. S. S. is.
I shall take pleasure in always recommending it."

S. S. S. is the only remedy that gets at the root of all blood diseases, that all so-called remedies fail to reach. It is guaranteed.

BELLAIRE.
All Sorts of Local News and Gossip About the Glass City.

An alarm of fire was sounded yesterday morning about 6 o'clock. The store room owned by C. Rumbach and occupied by the Belmont Printing Company, was badly burned and the stock of the printing company was completely ruined, excepting the presses. Squire Mason also suffered some loss, a number of papers being damaged by water. The fire was discovered and the alarm given, but before any of the department arrived a can of oil exploded and the fire got a good start. The loss is covered by insurance.

Bellaire Republicans and sound money men are grateful to their Wheeling, Benwood and Martin's Ferry friends for the splendid aid in adding to the splendor of the magnificent demonstration here Monday night. The march was longer than intended, but the chief marshal was dazzled by the splendor of the occasion and didn't want to disappoint any of the loyal
